James Scala is meeting with a great success and fine patronage in his New Italy restaurant on the second floor of 61 West Monroe street. It is very popular with professional and business men.

The individuals in the flock of Smokes waiting for service at the office of the City Department of Public Service in the City Hall evidently do not all want their bills sharpened or their teeth fixed. A snapshot of a crowd of them would disclose a great display of worry in the shape of moans and some appetite for public service or pay.

Otto Rueter, the leader among Chicago real estate subdividers, has opened a new office at 32 North Dearborn street. It is encouraging to the real estate world as well as to the property owners and prospective buyers to see Mr. Rueter blazing the way to a big trade with the finest real estate office in Chicago on the ground floor of a big building on a prominent loop street.

Captain Henry Channon, the well known and highly respected president of the H. Channon Company, is one of the men who is always working to make Chicago greater. Captain Channon's public spirit, his natural energy and his great popularity make him a valuable man to any cause that he espouses.

Emil Longhi, the popular proprietor of the justly famous Italian & Greek Products Company at 1518-20 South Wabash avenue, has built up a great reputation in the business world on account of the excellence of the olive oil and fine imported wines handled by his house.

„LEGAL“ BLACKMAIL

The So-Called Legal Fraternity Rotten With Alleged Lawyers, Who Live Upon the Sorrows of Others.

The Chicago legal fraternity needs a purgative. It is too full of crooks and blackmailers who are living upon the misfortunes of others. Fellows who have given up all sorts of jobs where they had an opportunity to get hold of other people's troubles, like discharged and discredited former assistant public attorneys, and other vermin of that ilk are reported to be thriving just now. One long-haired, spindle-shanked scoundrel, who held an official job long enough to get on both sides of a certain divorce case, is reported to have quite a meal ticket working both sides of it. He is only one of many. This class of vermin is boosted and aided by certain "reform" associations, some of which are paid out of the public funds and are "authorized" blackmailers.

The exposure of these frauds is certain to come, and will shake the daylight out of the legal crooks, who now fatten on human misery.

John T. Murray, the well known and popular lawyer, would make a good judge.

Judge Frank Johnston, Jr., is making a fine record on the Circuit Court bench.

Hey Bros. Motor Car & Garage Company at 4621 to 4629 Cottage Grove avenue maintain one of the largest garages in the city and their "daylight and night service" is the best of any.

Chester A. Phillips & Co., the well-known sales engineers, in the Old Colony Building, have a national reputation for efficiency and square dealing and no concern in the country furnishes better locomotives, steam shovels, excavators, locomotive cranes, railway cars, steel rails, railroad power, mining, shipbuilders and contractors equipment.

Laurence R. Adams, the popular manager of the fine Brevoort Hotel, is one of Chicago's prosperous citizens and one of the best liked hotel men in the United States.

Edmund T. Perkins, the well known engineer, is a progressive Chicagoan with a national reputation in his profession.

Judge Thomas F. Scully has made a splendid record in the County Court. The people have confidence in him and their confidence has never been misplaced, either when the judge was on the Municipal bench or in his present responsible position.

Fletcher Dobyns, the popular master in chancery, is at the forefront in every movement for the betterment of Chicago.

Matt Allen would make a good City Treasurer. He is a sterling Democrat and has worked hard to put many good men into public office.

YOU ARE JUST AS OLD AS YOUR SPINE

Even back as far as Caesar's time this saying was used. In later years, men substituted for it—"A man's just as old as he feels". Taking the two, and combining the meaning, we have the true expression and Chiropactic interpretation—"A man's just as old as his Spine allows him to feel."

The spinal column is the main conduit through which the nerve cables pass from the brain, and from which the tiny feeders are distributed to every portion of the body. If through abnormal curvature, the bones of the spinal column obstruct the free flow of the health-giving currents from the brain to the bodily organs, disease results in the organs so affected. The Chiropactor adjusts the cause of the trouble, removes the pressure on the nerves without the use of Drugs or Knife. This allows Nature to build up the diseased organs or tissues. If there is any abnormal condition present in your body which is causing you suffering, let Chiropactic bring back normal conditions so you may again enjoy good health. F. H. Seubold, Chiropactor, 1331 Stevens Bldg.—Adv.

Granville W. Browning would make a good member of the Circuit Court bench.

Two hundred saloons have gone out of business since May 1, leaving 5,200 still running in Chicago.

Stillman B. Jamieson is one of the coming men in the Republican party. He is honest and able.

Adam Wolf is one of the most popular men in Chicago. You can't beat him.

Alderman Walter P. Steffen is making a fine record in the city council.

The Micholob Club which meets at Ohio and Clark streets in Bauerman's splendid rooms is growing in membership and power every day.

Judge Kichham Scanlan fulfills the expectations of his friends. His record on the bench is a good one.

Patrick J. Carr is making a good record as trustee of the Sanitary District of Chicago.

Dr. George Sultan always made a good record in public life.

Maurice T. Cullerton is much respected as a leader in labor circles.

Frank Wenger, the well known brewer and business man, is talked of for State Auditor and State Treasurer. He would fill either position well.

Judge John R. Caverly gives general satisfaction to the public in the municipal Court and grows more popular every day.

Charles Molitor, a recognized leader in the machinery trade, is one of Chicago's leading and most reliable business men. His name is honored wherever he is known.

Thomas J. Suerman of Ohio and Clark streets and proprietor of the oldest saloon and restaurant in Chicago has the finest bar fixtures in America. They were made over 25 years ago, and the carving was all done by hand. The German Historical Society has taken photographs of them.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING REGISTRATION OF BONDS

Important information concerning the registration of Liberty Loan bonds, as given out by the bond department of the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago contains the following quotation from a letter from the Treasury department:

"With reference to accepting subscriptions for bonds to be registered in the names of persons giving only initials rather than the full name, I have to say that it is the intent of the Department, not for its own sake, but for the sake of holders of registered bonds, to have them registered in such manner as to enable the said holders, or their legal representatives, to dispose of them in the simplest and readiest manner. Bonds issued to women under their initials, or under the initials of their husbands, are not readily transferable in case of the death of the holder.

"Though letters of administration would be issued in the legal name of the deceased, and the bonds would be inscribed in her name, under her initials, or those of her husband, as the case might be. The letters of administration and the bonds would not agree as to the name, and therefore the administrator of Mrs. Sarah A. Smith, say, would have to prove that she and Mrs. Thomas W. Smith (or Mrs. S. Smith) were one and the same person. It is to avoid troubles of this character that the Department has insisted on receiving the legal name of persons subscribing for registered bonds.

"Of course, the Department cannot refuse to issue bonds under initials if the parties interested insist upon it, but it is requested that you, in all cases where it is possible, insist on receiving the full names of persons subscribing for registered bonds."

Charles Kruttsch always made a good public record.

Ivan D. Koukoff, the well known money broker and steamship agent, is a leader on the West Side. He would make a good county commissioner.

John W. Eckhart has done much to build up the Iroquois Club. He makes a success of everything he undertakes.

Dixon C. Williams has high honors awaiting him at the hands of the people.
